P.C.:

This appeal is directed against the order of acquittal recorded by the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Kavathe Mahankal, Kolhapur District. The learned Magistrate while recording the order of acquittal has appreciated the evidence on record in its proper perspective, has discussed it in clear terms and has given cogent reasons for not accepting the evidence. His findings on all points are supported by judgments of the Supreme Court. The order is thus well reasoned order and does not call for any interference. Hence application for leave is rejected.
